

ACAG meeting minutes
07/11/2006

7:00 p.m. Meeting called to order.

Spin 360 – Comments/impressions from ACAG members

- * Good exposure
- * Would like to continue same idea, i.e., joint shows next year with other artists.
- * ??? sales volume

Announcement: Street work on north side of building to be done by Friday.

eARTh – planning:

Balisteri to be here between 5 and 9 p.m. Amy will be picking up cheeses, etc. from them. ACAG will buy wine that is poured, approx. $120.00

Setup and cleanup discussed and assigned.

Gallery – discussion on amount of work displayed.

Amy needs artist's names, prices, and title of pieces

General discussion on purpose for gallery

Gallery sales were setup to help capital expenses

Recognition

Learning – redefining markets

Discussion to continue in depth at August 8 general meeting in conjunction with 501c(3) requirements – Beth to email information on 501c(3) before meeting.

Kazu – kiln

Tom Forte has agreed to troubleshoot at no charge.

Spray booth

In the works.

Signage

In process – Gary and Darryl and Amy – research permits

501c(3)

As above

Arvada Art Studio Tour – ACAG is signed up. Dates are Sept. 22 and 23. Help is needed. Artists working in studios will make this tour more successful. Question to use this time for membership drive, have a show on Friday night? Closing party?

General discussion on having a “show” chairperson.

Discussions re: future shows – October – magnet show; Holiday show.

This will be reviewed again at August 8th meeting.

Page 2

Plan for next year – priorities

1. Membership
2. 3-person committee for planning

August workshops – need to spread the word. Precious metal workshop planned. Other suggested workshops on kilns and firing.

Reminder: When firing to open garage door but close studio door during summer to eliminate heat buildup in the studio area.

8:20 – meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Beth Tribelhorn